The Diamond Sutra went on display in the Chinese Print exhibition at the British Museum on 12 May and the Star Chart is on display at the Grand Palais in Paris in their exhibition on Daoism.

COLLABORATIONS AND VISITS
- 8-9 April: Vic Swift visited IDP partners, at the Berlin-Brandenburg Akademie der Wissenschaften, to install a new server for the IDP German-language website.
- 13 April: Susan Whitfield met with Claire Warwick, Head of the Centre for Digital Humanities at UCL.
- 14 April: Sheng Yanhai, from the Dunhuang Academy, returned to China after a five-month internship in the IDP Studio, funded by the World Collections Programme.
- 21-23 April: Susan Whitfield travelled to Kabul for the opening of a British Library exhibition on images of Afghanistan, 1830-1920. Rachel Roberts was responsible for much of the photography and Vic Swift designed the catalogue. The images will be put on IDP and IDP will also host a website of the exhibition.
- 22 April: Neville Agnew and Martha Demas of the Getty Conservation Institute visited the IDP studio.
- 28 April: Abby Baker and Alastair Morrison visited the Confucius Institute at the University of Central Lancashire in Preston, where Abby spoke to secondary students and teachers, and Alastair gave a public lecture, about Buddhism on the Silk Road.
- 7 May: Susan Whitfield met with Dr Vivienne Lo of UCL and Ronit Yoeli-Tlalim to discuss an extension and possible funding of the medical manuscripts project.
- 11 May: The Chinese Ambassador spoke positively about IDP in his speech at the reception for a NLC-BL China Studies Day. Susan Whitfield met with the delegation from the NLC to discuss IDP and their collaboration with the BL.
- 20 May: Susan Whitfield met with Roger Wallen to discuss a possible joint project with Newcastle University on Hadrian’s Wall and the Chinese Han walls.
- 27 May: Susan Whitfield met with Mimi Gardener of Seattle Art Museum to discuss possible joint projects.

LECTURES AND EVENTS
- 19 May: Susan Whitfield gave a lecture on ‘Arts of the Taklamakan Kingdoms’ to the Bristol Society for the Arts of Asia.
- 26 May: Susan Whitfield gave a lecture on the Dunhuang Star Chart and Chinese astronomy to the Astrophysics group at Imperial College.

FORTHCOMING LECTURES, EVENTS AND PUBLICATIONS
- Susan Whitfield will lecture and hold a seminar on manuscript studies in Hamburg in early June.
- Sam van Schaik and Imre Galambos are editing, for final submission to de Gruyter (provisional publication date October 2010), Manuscripts and Travellers: The Sino-Tibetan Documents of a Tenth-Century Buddhist Pilgrim.